

HOW TO TAKE THE PERFECT PHOTO

This is a quick guide on how to take the perfect photo for your pet portrait. A great photo can make all the difference to capturing your pet's personality for your bespoke painting. First of all make sure you're using a good quality camera, and that your pet is looking their best. Take lots of photos the more the better, as this means together we can go through the photos and pick out the best. Below are some easy steps to capturing the perfect photo.

Lighting

To make your pet look beautiful try finding natural light, head outside.

Crop

If you want a photo of your pet sitting, don't cut off their feet in the photo. Try to keep all of them in the photo.

The Eyes

The best paintings are those where you can see the pet's eyes, it really helps to show their personality.

If you have any questions about taking photos don't hesitate to get in touch!